

Cycling the Portuguese Coastal Way to Santiago

Overview:

Follow the coastline north as you pedal your way along ancient pilgrim trails from Porto to Santiago de Compostela Cathedral in Northern Spain.

See the best of northern Portugal and Galicia as you cycle the Portuguese Coastal Way of St. James along the coast and through gloriously green countryside. Between the fascinating cities of Porto and Santiago de Compostela, you'll discover hamlets, pretty towns and bags of history.

This truly unforgettable ride passes by a series of sandy beaches, villages and market gardens and weaves through the countryside to attractive medieval towns like Vila do Conde, Caminha, Viana do Castelo and Baiona. Ride on through typical Galician countryside to the city of Vigo and join the Central Camino to discover yet more charming towns and cities bursting with character and history and gorgeous green forests, fields and hills.
